

Title: Litigation Associate (5+ Yrs Experience)

Higgins, Hopkins, McLain & Roswell, LLC is seeking one or more attorney(s) with at least five years of experience litigating general liability insurance defense cases. We seek applicants who value and maintain strong insurance carrier relationships. Candidates with trial experience and an existing, portable book of business sufficient to support themselves and to generate work for others (equivalent to $500,000 or more in billings) will be given the highest priority and will be compensated accordingly. All with passion and experience for general liability/insurance defense work who wish to join a positive and collaborative firm culture are encouraged to apply.

We value team players who are organized, detail-oriented. Must be licensed in Colorado.

Salary for those applicants who do not bring significant portable work is anticipated to start at or above $90,000, plus a percentage of originations. Those who bring portable, new work to the firm, will be paid a percentage of revenues generated from that portable work. We also offer excellent benefits including health, dental, long term disability, and life insurance, and 401(k) matching. Interested candidates should submit their resume, references, and writing samples.
